‘Eye for an eye’: Kurt Tay jailed for posting intimate video of woman, previously asked about hiring killer

LATEST NEWS PEOPLE SINGAPORE

Tay committed the offences in retaliation after humiliating photos of him were sent to a WhatsApp group and to his employers.

By Prudence Lim - 23 Apr 2026, 6:17 pm

Singapore personality Kurt Tay jailed 14 months for sharing intimate videos and photo of woman in revenge

Singaporean online personality Kurt Tay has been sentenced to 14 months' jail and an additional 10 days for distributing intimate material and making threatening remarks.

The 43-year-old, whose real name is Tay Foo Wei, was also fined S$3,000.

However, he will serve an extra 10 days' jail after failing to pay the fine, The Straits Times (ST) reported.

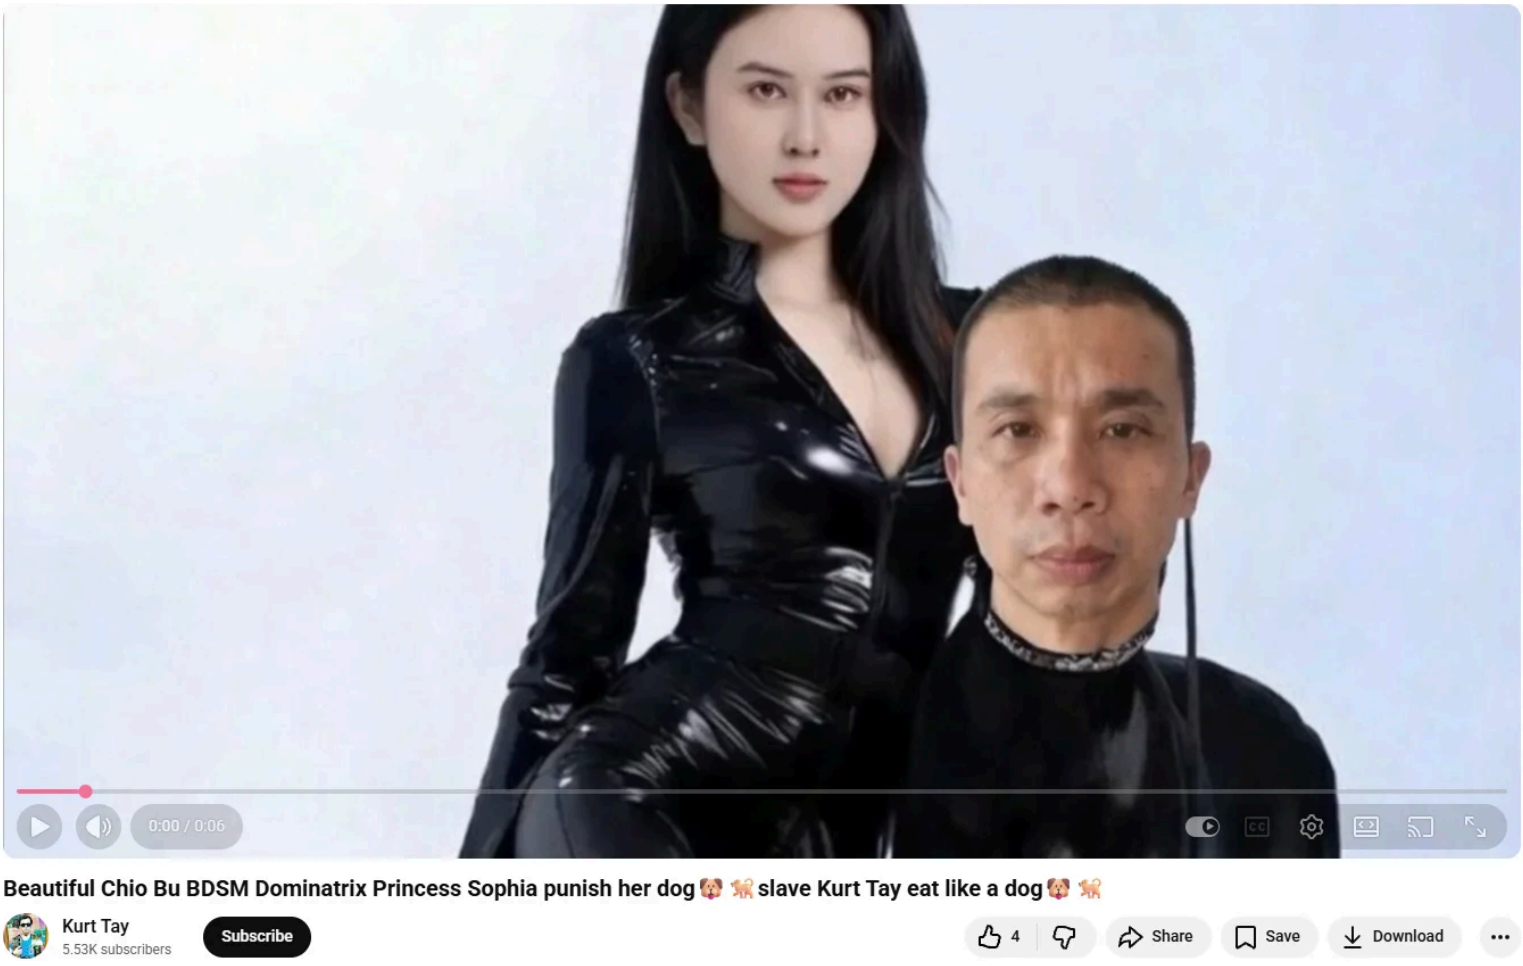
Tay pleaded guilty to one charge of distributing an intimate video and photo of the woman without her consent, as well as one count of making threatening, abusive, or insulting communication.

Nine other charges were taken into consideration.

Dispute led to revenge postings

The court heard that Tay came into contact with the woman in June 2023 after learning she provided BDSM-related services. BDSM stands for a variety of sexual practices, including bondage, discipline, dominance, submission, sadism, and masochism.

Videos from his YouTube channel showed his interest in BDSM.



Source: Kurt Tay on YouTube

Between July and Aug 2023, he filmed himself performing acts requested by the woman and sent the clips to causing him embarrassment. At the time, he was working as a security officer.

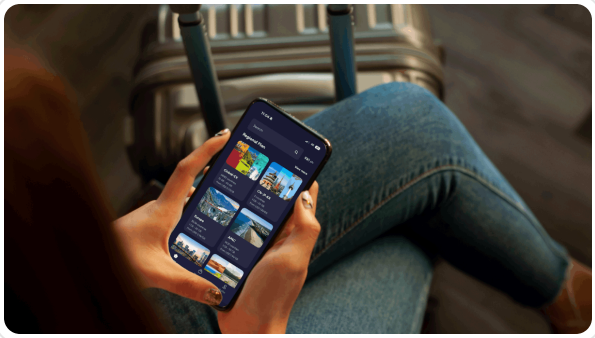
Skip to next poll →

Not logged in. Login to comment on this poll

Hide Poll

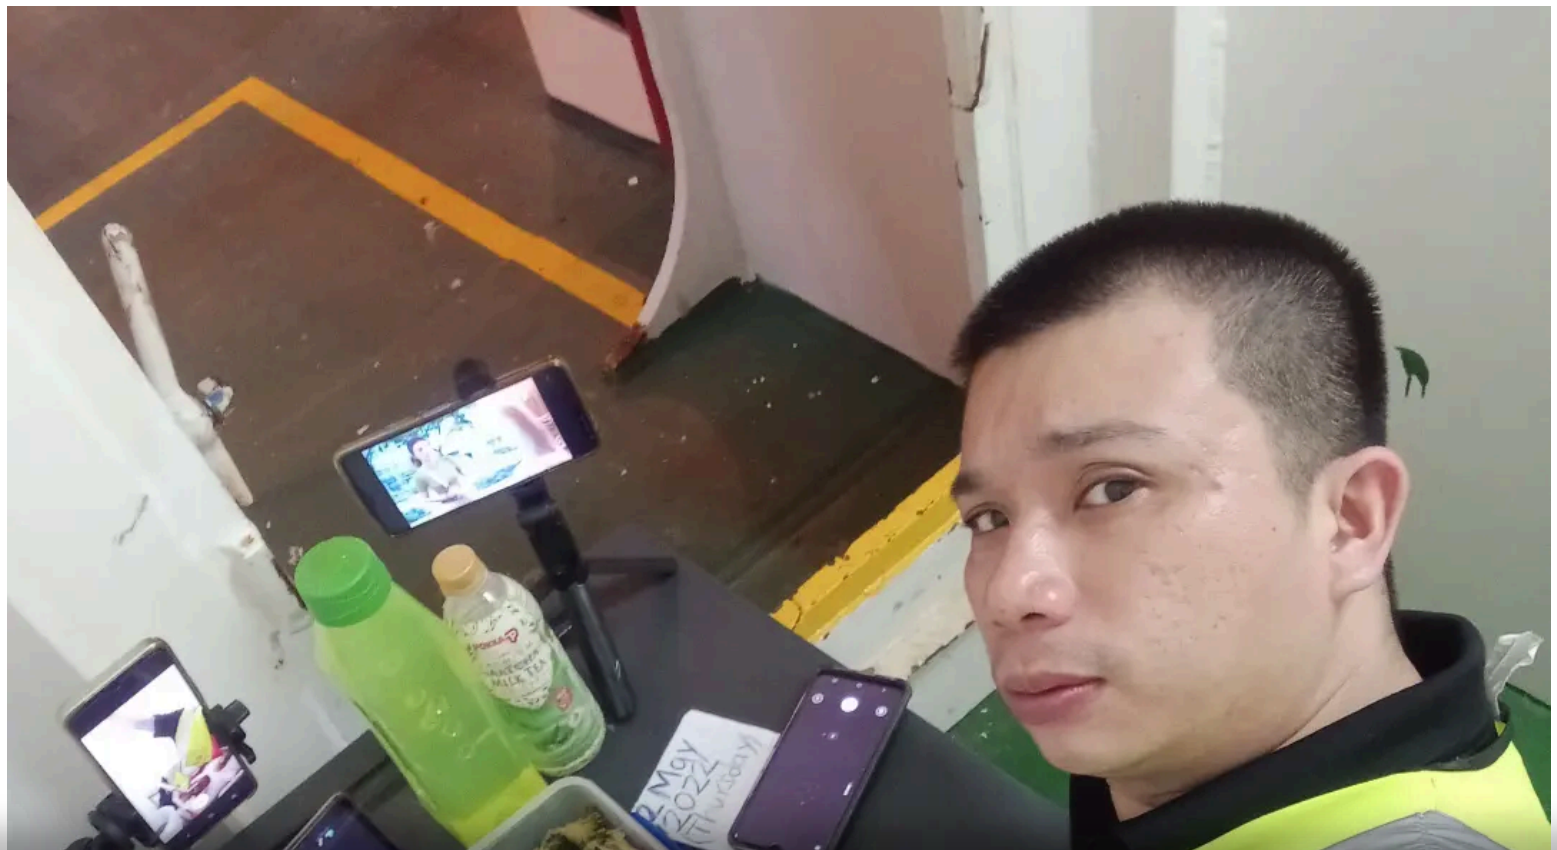


When it comes to travel data, what is the main way for you to decide on a provider?

- I stick to my local roaming provider every time
- I compare individual prices
- I follow friends' and/or family's recommendations
- I use a provider that has promo codes/deals
- I read online reviews

Poll powered by Answers.sg

Confirm



Source: Instagram

In retaliation, he shared an intimate video and photo of the woman in a Telegram group with more than 240 members.

According to CNA, he posted the video around 30 times and the photo 13 times, saying he did so as "an eye for an eye".

Asked about hiring a killer

In Oct 2023, Tay also posted threatening messages in the same Telegram group, including asking how much it would cost to hire a killer and stating that he wanted the woman to die.

The victim's friends alerted her to the messages, prompting her to file a police report.

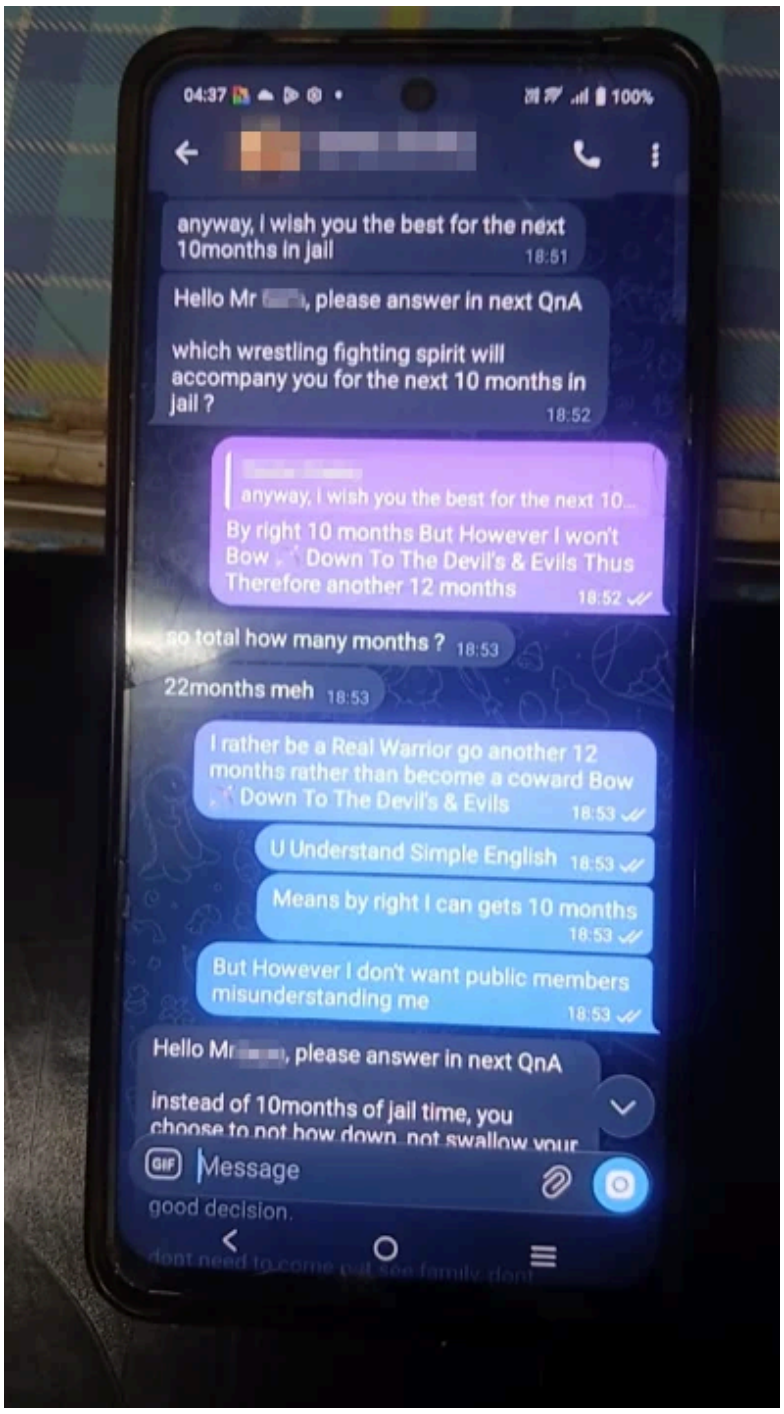
Deputy Public Prosecutor Dan Pan said the threats caused the victim to fear for her safety and left her "alarmed, distressed, and humiliated", to the extent that she considered seeking psychiatric help.

Court maintains revenge is not excuse for crime

The defence argued that the offences arose from a soured online relationship and that Tay had since lost his job as a security officer following the dispute.

Source: Instagram

In a YouTube video posted on 22 April, Tay claimed in a text exchange that he had been "charged by right 10 months", but was serving a longer sentence as he "won't bow down to the devil's and evils [sic]".



anyway, I wish you the best for the next 10months in jail 18:51
Hello Mr , please answer in next QnA which wrestling fighting spirit will accompany you for the next 10 months in jail ? 18:52 anyway, I wish you the best for the next 10...
By right 10 months But However I won't Bow Down To The Devil's & Evils Thus Therefore another 12 months 18:52
so total how many months ? 18:53
22months meh 18:53
I rather be a Real Warrior go another 12 months rather than become a coward Bow Down To The Devil's & Evils 18:53
U Understand Simple English 18:53
Means by right I can gets 10 months 18:53
But However I don't want public members misunderstanding me 18:53
Hello Mr , please answer in next QnA
instead of 10months of jail time, you Message
good decision.

Source: Kurt Tay on YouTube

Under the law, distributing intimate images without consent carries a jail term of up to five years, a fine, caning, or a combination of these penalties.